

The BC Research Institute for Children's & Women's Health presents:

Mini Med School V

A series of free seminars for the public
April 13 to May 18, 2005

Child health and development:

What's
"normal"
got to do with it?

Join top scientists and clinicians in discovering the latest research

Free enrollment / limited seating
Register early by calling 604-875-2000 (local 5397)
or email minimed@cw.bc.ca
Visit www.bcricwh.bc.ca for more information

MINI MED SCHOOL V

At the BC Research Institute for Children's & Women's Health

with Dean Dr. Ron Barr

(Sessions include special appearances by biostatistician Rollin Brant)

WEDNESDAYS 7:00–9:00 PM

Child Health and Development: What's "normal" got to do with it?

April 13 Judging "normal": Emerging concepts in child development

Ron Barr, Maureen O'Donnell, Michael Klein

April 20 Developing brains / changing minds: Neurons, behaviour and identity

Kurt Haas, Adele Diamond, Michael Chandler

April 27 Facing firsts and taking risks: From school readiness to adolescent health and behaviour

Clyde Hertzman, Ian Pike, Elizabeth Saewyc

May 4 Beyond words: Expressions and perceptions of stress and pain

Faye Warnock, Tim Oberlander, Edith Chen

May 11 Mixed messages: Language acquisition, early communication, and immigrant health

Janet Werker, Ron Barr, Bob Armstrong

May 18 The eye of the beholder: Dysmorphology, decision-making and diagnostics

Sterling Clarren

Graduation!

MINI MED SCHOOL

In the Chan Auditorium and Chieng Atrium at the BC Research Institute for Children's & Women's Health
950 West 28th Avenue, Vancouver

FREE ADMISSION! LIMITED SEATING!

Register today by calling 604.875.2000 (local 5397)

Or email minimed@cw.bc.ca

Visit us online at www.bcricwh.bc.ca