

The BC Research Institute for Children's & Women's Health presents:

Mini Med School IV

A series of free seminars for the public

Learn the latest research on DIABETES

Diagnosis, management and emerging treatments

Join in the dialogue with our world-class investigators
October 13 to November 17, 2004

Enroll today — seating is limited
Register by calling 604.875.2000 (ext 7838)
or email minimed@cw.bc.ca

MINI MED SCHOOL

At the BC Research Institute for Children's & Women's Health

Mini Med School IV Dean: Bruce Verchere

Diabetes Curriculum

WEDNESDAYS 7:00 – 9:00 PM

- Oct. 13 You are what you eat, secrete and metabolize
Introduction to the basics of diabetes
Diane Finegood, Bruce Verchere, Brian Rodrigues
- Oct. 20 Insulin: to secrete or resist...(that is the question!)
The biology, risk factors and clinical aspects of type 2 diabetes
Bruce Verchere, Jean-Pierre Chanoine, Dina Panagiotopoulos
- Oct. 27 Of fitness and a full plate
The impact of diet and physical activity on diabetes
Laird Birmingham, Scott Lear, Sheila Innis
- Nov. 3 Up close and cellular
Type 1 diabetes: prediction, immunology, virology, and treatment
Rusung Tan, Janet Chantler, Vagn Bonnevie-Nielsen, Daniel Metzger
- Nov. 10 Look ma...no insulin!
Vaccinations, cell therapies and future policy
Jan Dutz, Tim Kieffer, Garth Warnock, Diane Finegood
- Nov. 17 From isletin to insulin to ...?
An historical perspective by U of T medical historian Michael Bliss

Graduation! (Degree does not certify recipient to practice medicine!)

MINI MED SCHOOL

In the Chan Auditorium and Chieng Atrium at the BC Research Institute for Children's & Women's Health
950 West 28th Avenue, Vancouver

FREE ADMISSION! LIMITED SEATING!

Register today by calling 604.875.2000 (ext 7838)

Or email minimed@cw.bc.ca